

MANDELA WASHINGTON
FELLOWSHIP
FOR YOUNG AFRICAN LEADERS

2022 Fellowship Recruitment Toolkit: Partners

Application Period: August 18 – September 15, 2021

OVERVIEW

With nearly 5,100 Alumni, the Mandela Washington Fellowship has garnered national and international attention, and we are proud to partner with your institution in its implementation. As we prepare to recruit the eighth cohort of Mandela Washington Fellows for the 2022 Fellowship, we ask you to reach out to young leaders in Sub-Saharan Africa from your communities and networks who you think would be a good fit for the Fellowship. With your help, we hope to ensure that our 2022 Fellows represent the diversity of Africa – coming from both rural and urban areas, including individuals with disabilities, and representing people of all genders.

This toolkit features:

- 2022 Eligibility and Application Instructions
- Frequently Asked Questions about Disability and Pregnancy Accommodations
- Email Templates
- Sample Social Media Posts

You may also go to mwfellows.info/PartnerToolkit to download additional recruitment resources from our website, including:

- Instructions for the 2022 Fellowship application
- Answers to frequently asked questions (FAQs)
- Recruitment graphics to share on social media and by email
- A general recruitment PowerPoint to facilitate group recruitment presentations
- Information for prospective Fellows with disabilities, including a disability accommodations-focused recruitment PowerPoint for targeted presentations
- Information for prospective Fellows who are or may become pregnant

Please also check the Mandela Washington Fellowship Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, and LinkedIn accounts for daily posts you can reshare. Additionally, you can find application advice and tips at mwfellows.info/apply.

ELIGIBILITY

The Mandela Washington Fellowship is open to young African leaders who are:

- Between the ages of 25 and 35 on or before the application submission, although exceptional applicants ages 21-24 will be considered
- Not U.S. citizens or permanent residents of the United States
- Eligible to receive a United States J-1 visa
- Not employees or immediate family members of employees of the U.S. Government
- Proficient in reading, writing, and speaking English
- Citizens and residents of an eligible country
- Not Alumni of the Mandela Washington Fellowship

A strong applicant for the Fellowship should have a proven record of leadership and accomplishment in public service, business, or civic engagement; a demonstrated commitment to public or community service, volunteerism, or mentorship; the ability to work cooperatively in diverse groups and respect the opinions of others; strong social and communication skills; an energetic, positive attitude; demonstrated knowledge of, interest in, and professional experience in the preferred sector/track; and a commitment to return to Africa and apply leadership skills and training to benefit the applicant's country and/or community after returning home.

Applicants for the Mandela Washington Fellowship will not be discriminated against on the basis of race, color, gender, religion, socio-economic status, disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity. As you support recruitment for our 2022 cohort, please help us recruit a balanced cohort: representation from urban and rural areas, gender diversity, and balanced representation across all three tracks.
